L.A. Log Reading

This week we read the story EEK, There's a Mouse in the House. It is about a mouse that gets loose in the house and how they try to get rid of it. Keep encouraging your child to read at home because the more practice they get the better their reading will become. I have so many students that have turned in a bunch of reading logs. Keep up the great work! Students need 5 reading logs turned in by the end of the year. Please make sure you are practicing the sight words that your child doesn't know each night.

Writing

This week we will be free writing during our writing block. We also wrote Jaxon birthday letters on his birthday as well this week.

We started our One School One Book this week. We had a kick off assembly on Tuesday and will be reading the book Masterpiece by: Elise Broach for the next 6 weeks. There is a note that went home on Tuesday with the reading schedule and planned family activities.

Reminders

- We will celebrate the 100th day of school on Thursday, January 30th (pending snow days). Please help your child fill the baggie that was sent home last week with 100 of the same item from around your house. We will share our collections with the class on the 100th day and then I will send them back home.
- We had an assembly about Ned's Kindness Adventure this week. There is a note attached to the newsletter about a kindness sale that is going on at Oakland from the 24th- 31st in the lobby. I attached the note to Bloomz earlier this week in case you wanted to send money ahead of time.
- MAP scores are in Friday folders for you to see.

REMEMBER TO READ AT LEAST 20 MINUTES EACH NIGHT!
